

ECSR WRITE UP 4

SFP

Clip 4

The player in the white uniform makes a poor touch out from the back which results in both the white player and the red player sliding in to make a challenge for the ball. It is hard to see the exact point of contact due to #16 red blocking the view of the challenge. It appears that both players took a risk going into this challenge as the red player is going in with his studs up into the challenge as well as the white player.