Offside

In this play, Blue is in an offside position and receives the ball played by his teammate. At the moment the ball is played, the Assistant Referee is trailing a few yards behind as the players come up field.

This is a good reminder for our Assistant Referees to maintain focus and their position with the second to last defender as they are moving up field.

Offside

In this play, White is trailing the Blue defenders coming up field. At the moment that White kicks clears the ball, his teammate is in an offside position in the opponents half of the field. White continues his movement into his own half and receives the ball. This White player is offside.

This is a good reminder for our Assistant Referees that positioning with the second to last defender is crucial. In this play, we are caught out of position.
